Saturday, April 18, 2020: 8:00 am to 5:00 pm

LOCATION

Bascom Palmer Eye Institute
900 NW17th Street
Miami, FL 33136

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Retina Case Conference 2020 is designed to bring together retina specialists to share challenging medical and surgical cases and discuss their diagnosis and management. Through discussion of all cases, we hope to improve patient care for a variety of retinal conditions.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to:

- Identify a variety of challenging medical and surgical conditions
- Enumerate a differential diagnosis for various retinal pathologies
- Analyze different imaging modalities and management strategies for complex retinal conditions
- Develop skills for improved medical care of patients with retinal disorders
